RE ENTERTAINMENT TAX PAYABLE in Lumpsum

I have arranged Mr Pankaj Mullick's concert & Mr Madhavan's Dance performence together (both of International repute) at Sir Puttanchetty Town Hall from Sept'28 to 3rd Oct' and the rates of admission are Rs 25/-,10/_-,5/6,3/- & 2/- inclusive of E Tax Considerable difficulty is experienced in obtaining the required denominations of stamps and even if we obtain them it is rather very difficult to affix them on each ticket in such a manner that every stamp so affixed is completely destroyed while admitting the ticket holder to satisfy the Amusement Tax rule No 13 (4) And if the stamps are so affixed they occupy the whole ticket leaving disabling the gate-keeper to find out the genuineness of the ticket sold for the particular performence hence I would earnestly request the Govt Of His highness the Maharaja of Mysore to kindly permit me to pay the E Tax so due to the Govt in a consolidated sum at the end of the performence on the last day

If I may be permitted mention may be made here that payment of E Tax to Govt in a consolidated sum is in vogue in Bangalore Cantt

As the above performence starts on the 28th inst under the kind and distinguished patronage of the Hon Minister Mr M A Sreenivasan ~~xxxxx~~ I have to request the Govt of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore immediately
